

Caleb Powell is an Environmental Scientist for the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation's Office of Policy and Sustainable Practices. He started working for the State over 2 years ago directly after graduating from Middle Tennessee State University (MTSU) with a Bachelor's of Science in Environmental Sustainability and Energy Technology. He is currently enrolled at MTSU in the Occupational Health and Safety Master's program. His passion for the environment started at an early age while watching his father run a landfill and then transfer over to running a recycling plant.
