

Chattanooga Regional Manufacturers Association Environmental Conference 2019

J. Wayne Cropp, is a member of the Government Enforcement and Investigations Practice Group in the Chattanooga office of Baker Donelson. His practice is focused on a full range of environmental law across the Southeast US, with extensive experience in air quality, brownfield redevelopment, sustainability and hazardous waste issues.

During his government tenure as Executive Director of the Chattanooga-Hamilton County Air Pollution Control Bureau (1979 – 1990), Mr. Cropp developed the implementation strategies that brought worldwide recognition to Chattanooga's environmental initiatives.

Included among his many professional accomplishments were service on the national level as president of the former National Association of Local Air Pollution Control Officials (1983-1984) which is the current National Association of Clean Air Agencies (NACAA). Mr. Cropp is a former chairman of the Environment Committee for the Chattanooga Regional Manufacturers Association, a position he held for 15 years.

Mr. Cropp is a member of the Air and Waste Management Association (1980-2019); Section of Environmental, Energy, and Resources Committee of the American Bar Association; and Environmental Law Section of the Tennessee Bar Association (Chairman, 2004 – 2005).
